Make your money go further.

From everyday purchases to running a business, the world really can be in your pocket.

The Three C's of Email Design

Creative + Content + Coding

Those are the "big three" areas to focus on when it comes to great email marketing design.

If your CREATIVE is fresh, simple and to the point...

while your CODING is responsive and readable with images-off...

and you fill it with value-added CONTENT...

you're best in class and probably see high opens, clicks and conversion. We hope these pages inspire your next campaign.

Dynamic Content Display

Changes based on user data, such as time remaining or location.

Template System

Unified header/footer with stacked sections that can be added, removed or reordered.

100% Readable with Images Off

All text is displayed and readable, whether or not images are loaded.

Web Fonts

An email that uses non-web-standard typography.

Responsive Design

A layout that utilizes CSS3 @media properties to alter its layout for PC or mobile.

Map Module

Map that pinpoints your location and nearest store, via IP address.

Bulletproof Buttons

A button that can be read and clicked, even with images turned off.

Catch-All Bottom Navigation

Helps get clicks to other category levels with a series of links at the bottom of the message.

Custom Mailto Link

A link that displays dynamic content within a mailto link.

Social Share

Social sharing icons connected to Main CTAs. Shares a portion of the email, not the whole message.

Poll

An interactive poll that shows results on a custom landing page.

Mobile Click-to-Call

Allows smartphone users to click-to-call.

Mobile Scalable Hybrid Layout

One layout for big and small screens alike. 100% readable and functional, with no need to zoom or pinch.

Status Bar

Visual cue to display user progress or time remaining within a service period.

Multi-Message Campaign

Multiple messages regarding the same topic with a series designation.

Click-to-Launch App

A call-to-action that launches a smartphone app or desktop application.

Mega Merge

Relevant user information is pulled in with an attention-grabbing graphical treatment.

Next Generation Registration

Mobile optimized form fields with transitions and on-screen validation.

Video

A pseudo video player, which clicks through to an autoplay video landing page.

Landing Page

An optimized web experience created in conjunction with the email to increase conversion.

Animated GIFs

A pixel-based image that moves

Sticky Content

A light, recurring section, meant to engage readers (photo of the week, jargon watch, comics, trivia, etc).

Social Excerpts

Social content (like tweets, photos or comments) that are pulled right into the message.

Direct Mail

Traditional printed postal marketing.

Spartan

Template System

Fans love Spartan – the athletic endurance race company that is changing people’s lives! Now their email gets a tune-up as well. Hosted fonts over expansive background images embodies the ‘can-do’ spirit that Spartan is known for. Loads of sticky content about recipes and workouts adds value and keeps racers opening and engaged.
